

RP FOUNDATION'S MASS MARRIAGE CEREMONY ONCE AGAIN

The RP Foundation is in the process of conducting the Mass Marriage ceremony for the second time in Kollam. Christened, 'Samootha Parinayam-2013', the project aims at fulfilling the marriage dreams of all bridal girls who hail from economically backward families, irrespective of caste or creed.

Apart from coming from poor families, the brides and grooms, who are eligible for marriage under the Indian Marriages Act and whose marriages were duly decided and fixed jointly by both the families can apply. The marriages of the selected couples will be conducted in a grand function to be held in August/September next year in a specially built venue (Pandhal) in the vicinity of dignitaries. The Foundation will bear all the wedding expenses and will also provide clothes in addition to a gift of Rs. 1.5 as Cash to each couple. Further those aspiring for a job will also be given suitable placements in the various establishments of the RP Group both in India and abroad based on qualifications.

Those wanting to participate in 'Samootha Parinayam-2013' should apply in the prescribed application with all relevant details and documents to : The Convenor, RP Foundation, III Floor, Ravi's Arcade, Near Iron Bridge, Kollam – 691 001.

The selection process will be done through a thorough scrutiny with candid criteria and in strict accordance with norms prescribed in the guidelines and every care will be taken to ensure that the benefit goes only to the most deserving. The RP Foundation hopes that the State of Kerala will proudly accept this noble objective and would extend supportive hands towards its culmination.
